12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity⁵ as defined below? Yes ☐ No ☒

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates and places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits any or all of your foreign principals? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, describe fully.

Registrant regularly provides the Federation of German Industries (Bundesverband der Deutschen Industrie / BDI) and the Association of German Chambers of Industry and Commerce (Deutscher Industrie und Handelskammertag / DIHK) with written analyses and reports on current developments in United States trade policy, as well as with general updates on legislative developments of interest to German companies operating on a transatlantic basis. In addition, RGIT reports to member companies and industry-specific trade associations in Germany on relevant matters.

RGIT produces a weekly German-language newsletter, which is distributed by e-mail to a primarily German audience. Other publications include an English-language summary of legislative and regulatory developments, which is intended to inform both the business community in Germany, as well as interested parties in the United States.

⁵ The term "political activities" means any activity that the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

Supplemental Statement – Insert 1 – Response to Question 11

During this 6-month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal names in Items 7, 8 and 9 of this statement?

On behalf of the Federation of German Industries, RGIT arranged for meetings on November 7, 2007 between Mr. Juergen Thumann, the President of the Federation of German Industries, and members of Congress and an official of the Treasury Department. It should be noted that Mr. Thumann traveled to Washington to participate in a meeting of Transatlantic Economic Council (TEC) in Washington, DC, on November 9, 2007.

The TEC, which was established by President George W. Bush, German Chancellor Angela Merkel, and the European Commission President José Manuel Barroso at the April 30, 2007, U.S.-EU summit, aims to oversee and guide joint efforts to lower barriers to trade and investment between the United States and the European Union. Mr. Thumann participated in the meeting in his capacity as the European Union Vice-Chairman of the TransAtlantic Business Council.

In advance of the TEC meeting, Mr. Thumann met on November 7, 2007 with Senator Robert Bennett, Representative Carolyn Maloney, and Deputy Treasury Secretary Robert Kimmitt. The issues that Mr. Thumann addressed in the context of these meetings were fiscal and trade policy. As to the latter, a significant emphasis was placed on the matter of secure transatlantic shipping requirements. In all meetings, the issues of energy efficiency and the expansion of alternative and renewable energy sources and related technology were also discussed.
